INTERVIEW

Q: Daniel can you tell us a little about your background and training.

A: I have been in the business for over 25 years. I was trained by BRUNO DESSANGES now known as JACQUES DESSANGES. I also had hands on training in various New York and Paris salons where I learned all European styling.

Q: What about your philosophy as a stylist and at the Hair Lounge salon which you co-own?

A: Cutting hair is a love story for me, I enjoy making people feel good about themselves. I feel it is therapeutical to me and the client. Every women has the potential to look her best and look beautiful. I want to contribute to the world by bringing beauty and a good feeling to everyone , it's my journey. The salon experience , is a philosophy the we believe in at Hair Lounge Salon. We listen to our clients and we create a clean safe and relaxing environment for the client. Our expertise is in color and cutting as well as relaxers. Clients in general come to the salon as a safe heaven away from everyday life. They need an escape and we do our best to give them just what they need .

Q: What are some of the latest trends in color and cut.

A: We're seeing people be more bold with their color. Also it's all about shine shine shine. People want shiny colors ,and beautiful rich colors, always keep it simple.but rich . For this season in hair cutting the trend seems to be back to the elegant bob , with it's clean lines , or layered .

Q: What do you feel are your best talents?

A: I would have to say color and cut, I love doing both because one compliments the other and I have more control in what I can do. I am not limited to one thing since the color compliments the style.

Q: What would you say sets Hair Lounge Salon apart from other salons?

A: Our expertise and knowledge. We have devoted our lives to the business and it is a craft I take tremendous pride in, by making sure everyone looks good

Q: What products do you carry and recommend?

A: When it comes to hair products use whatever works for you individually. At Hair Lounge Salon we believe in using the best products on the market. We carry Wella products and are always searching for the latest thing to preserve your hair and your investment. We don't believe in jeopardizing the texture of the hair which is why we partnered with Wella, because their line of products is amazing. I therefore recommend all my clients use Wella products.
